

NEWS

MVA Noted for Practice Area Growth

North Carolina Lawyers Weekly
04.2013

Moore & Van Allen was highlighted and ranked in the North Carolina Lawyers Weekly piece "Top 25 law firms: The new normal" on April 18. The article overviews current trends among North Carolina law firms, including specialty area downsizing and practice cutting, but on the contrary, notes the launch of MVA's Economic Development, Transportation & Logistics and Global Services practice groups. Additionally, MVA was ranked second on Lawyers Weekly's list of North Carolina's Top 25 Firms, based on total number of N.C. attorneys.

"While some firms were tightening their belts, others were shifting their practices areas. Moore & Van Allen, for instance, launched several new practice groups..."