

NEWS

MVA Wins Balanced Life Workplace Award

The North Carolina Association of Women Attorneys (NCAWA) selected Moore & Van Allen for the 2007 Large Firm Balanced Life Workplace Award for the firm's commitment to encouraging a healthy work-life balance. Recognizing that synchronizing one's professional, family and social life is essential to an attorney's productivity and quality of life, the firm accommodates alternative work schedules, including flex-time and telecommuting arrangements, when possible.