Mesibov Counsel Bank in Business Unit Acquisition

11.09.2015

Moore & Van Allen Financial Services Member Jason Huff and Corporate/Mergers & Acquisitions/Securities Member Brian Mesibov were mentioned in an article published by The Deal for their role advising Wells Fargo in a major acquisition as GE Capital sells off its rail holdings.

Huff and Mesibov counseled the bank as Wells Fargo acquired General Electric Railcar Services LLC. The GE unit will be rolled into Wells Fargo's First Union Rail, making it the second largest railcar leasing business in North America.
