Moore & Van Allen's Web site is Recognized as one of the Best in North Carolina

03.24.2008

Moore & Van Allen's website received second place recognition in North Carolina Lawyer's Weekly third annual publication of best legal Web sites in North Carolina. The firm received recognition in the "Large Law Firm Category." This particular category acknowledges firms with more than 26 attorneys. Three independent judges with communications related backgrounds graded more than 140 Web sites. The criteria included: design style, quality, navigation capabilities, and web visibility. One judge commented, "Moore & Van Allen's Web site puts its emphasis on clear, clean navigation and readability. For example, it's the only site in its category that prominently featured a search tool specifically for the purpose of finding an attorney."
