

NEWS

O'Keefe and McDowell serve as panelists at SIFMA C&L Annual Seminar

Speaking Engagements
03.2019

Moore & Van Allen was pleased to have been a Gold sponsor at the 2019 SIFMA C&L Annual Seminar that took place March 24-27 in Phoenix, AZ. SIFMA's C&L Annual Seminar is the premier event for compliance and legal professionals working in the financial services industry. Close to 2,000 industry leaders and regulators gathered for three days of information sharing, networking and collaboration.

Charlotte Financial Regulatory Advice and Response Member, Ed O'Keefe, and Charlotte White Collar, Regulatory Defense, and Investigations Member, Valecia McDowell served as panelists for this year's seminar. O'Keefe contributed to the panel entitled "Intersection of Banking and Wealth Management" and McDowell joined the discussion for two panels; the first was entitled "What is Conduct Risk Data and How do you use it?" and the second entitled "Leadership Matters for Diversity & Inclusion".

Additionally, the MVA Team held an after dinner cocktail event at the Meritage Front Fire Pit Patio on March 26 where the group enjoyed the "MVA Mojito" cocktail along with other assorted beverages and refreshments.