

NEWS

Patent Practice Named in National Law Journal

10.2012

Moore & Van Allen is named twice in the National Law Journal's "Who Represents Corporate America" piece that was published on October 15. To determine which law firms represent America's largest corporations, NLJ searched public records to find outside counsel used by the Fortune 100 for contracts litigation, labor litigation, torts litigation and intellectual property litigation. MVA is listed in two separate client patent sections.