Zaloom Selected to the 25th Leadership Raleigh Class

09.2009

The Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce announced that the 25th Leadership Raleigh class is underway. Research Triangle Park attorney John Zaloom is among the community leaders who have enrolled in the new class. This year, there are fifty-two participants, marking the largest class in the history of the program.

During the nine-month program, participants get a bird's eye view of community issues, develop the skills necessary to assume leadership roles, and become exposed to community involvement opportunities. Leadership Raleigh is unlike other programs because it provides opportunities to meet key community leaders to discuss important issues.
