South Carolina Legislative Report - May 24, 2013

May 24, 2013

On the Floor

Appropriations Bill

The Senate gave second reading this week to H. 3710 , the state's annual appropriations bill, and is expected to give the bill third reading next week. The Senate also moved to place H. 3711, the Capital Reserve Fund, in a Special Order position on the calendar. The $6.3 billion plan includes a $50 million transfer of reoccurring dollars to the state's Infrastructure Bank, which can be used to borrow up to $500 million to be spent on roads and bridges. The Senate's version of the budget also includes $26 million to expand 4 year-old kindergarten to the poorest school districts across the state and over $23 million to the purchase of new school buses. The Senate also included an amendment that would give tax credits to individuals who make donations to non-profits that give scholarships to special needs children private school tuition grants capped at $5 million.

LEED Standards

H. 3592 was amended and given third reading the week by the House of Representatives. The bill, as introduced, proposed to remove LEED standards from state building projects, but was amended in the Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee to keep LEED standards as of January 1, 2013, and prevents newer versions from being implemented automatically.

Government Contracts - Fair and Open Competition

The House and Representatives gave final approval to S. 438, a bill that provides fair and open competition in government contracts by local officials, entities or employees from forbidding or requiring offerers from entering into contracts with labor unions. The legislation will be sent to the Governor for her approval or veto.

Unemployment Benefits - Disqualifications

H. 3165 was given third reading and ordered sent to the Senate this week. The bill would revise the method of determining the benefits of a person discharged from employment for illegal drug use, gross misconduct and failure to accept work. In addition the bill would specify criteria for labs performing drug tests, limit liability for employers in the disclosure of drug tests and set penalties for misuse of biological material relating to drug tests.
